

PRESS RELEASE

8th of April, 2009

The OHRID Institute for Economic Strategies and International Affairs announces that the 8th lecture of the International Political Economy Course on 9th of April, 2009 will be held by Professor Roman Joch from Czech Republic. Professor Joch will speak about the lessons learned from post-communist transitions.

Professor Roman Joch had graduated at the Charles University in Prague in 1996. Currently he is running the Civic Institute (in Czech: Občanský institut). Professor Joch will provide valuable experience from his previous lectures and from his working practice.

Dr. Roman Joch lectures, comments and publishes on political philosophy, international relations, international political economy and national security issues. Dr. Joch as renowned expert is frequently heard on radio and seen on TV; He has written many articles on current issues which appear in printed media almost on daily basis. In his publication opus there are several monographs and expert studies which confirm his greatness as expert and distinguished professor.

Professor Joch arrived in Republic of Macedonia in regards to the International Curriculum Program, created and organized by the OHRID Institute and implemented on the University American College. This will be another opportunity to have successful professor in the array of the University Curriculum Program.

The OHRID Institute will continue with the trend of bringing renowned professors and together with the University American College will offer the students extraordinary array of International knowledge. This opportunity brings a lifetime of experience.